

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE INDEPENDENT ETHICS COMMISSION
JANE T. FELDMAN

Ms. Feldman was the First Assistant Attorney General in the CER-CLA Litigation Unit of the Colorado Department of Law for four years, and before that, served as an Assistant Attorney General in the Natural Resources and Criminal Enforcement Sections in the same office. Prior to joining the Department of Law in 1989, Ms. Feldman worked in the New York County District Attorney's Office for eight years where she prosecuted felony cases, including sex crimes and homicides. She also served as a Deputy Bureau Chief and Bureau Chief in the Office of the Special Narcotics Prosecutor. Ms. Feldman graduated from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, where she was an editor of the Law Review and received her BA with Honors in History from Wesleyan University in Middletown, Connecticut. She became the first Executive Director of the Independent Ethics Commission in July, 2008.